"Roy, your poem "Thoughts" is such a powerful poem.. How true for me, you are not alone. There are days that are great, and some that are good and some not even worth mentioning. It is a process to learn how to take control of your thoughts...a process I am still learning.. I printed out your poem and will keep it in my office to remind me of how human I am when my mind starts to chatter ... Thank you for sharing such a great poem with me."
