

Little Girl

by Roy Knowles

Little Girl I know not who you are
Your voice to me seems so far

The pain please save me from it
It hurts so much I must admit

Little Girl where are you hun
I have a feeling we are no longer one

Listen to me I'm hurting so much
I yearn to feel your loving touch

Little Girl on a journey I was taken
To a rock by the sea you were so shaken

I remember the day so very well
I was so happy to see you I must tell

Little Girl I took you under my wing
So happy to find you we began to sing

Start of my freedom from guilt and shame
Now I can own it and there is no one to blame

Little Girl I love you so much
To my love you can always clutch

Happy so happy to be alive
As God intended we can now thrive

Little Girl you are always in my heart
We will never be apart

Thank you Mom I love you too
So much you have gotten us through
